

QUESTIONS

1. What good things, experiences, people, or successes has God granted to you?
2. How do you think the compliments given by the Lover and the Beloved made the other person feel about himself or herself and about their relationship?
3. What do these verses suggest about the purpose and place of sexual love?
4. What is significant about the Beloved's description of her Lover?
5. Judging from the events of these verses (and the events that led up to them), what are some essential elements in the process of reconciliation?