

QUESTIONS

- 1. As far as we know from this account, what became of the prophet Micaiah?
- 2. By what standards was a judge in Israel to deliver a verdict? In what ways are we called to be judges of people or situations?
- 3. How can our enemies destroy themselves when we trust the Lord and refuse to fight them with their methods?
- 4. How can our trust in the Lord during difficult challenges be an effective witness for the Lord to those around us?
- 5. Although we sometimes find ourselves alone as believers, in what sense are we not necessarily at the mercy of our enemies?