

QUESTIONS

1. What are some of the specialized skills needed in the operation of a local church?
2. Why is it difficult to be thorough in taking spiritual inventory of our lives?
3. What action, beyond just reading and studying, does the Bible require of us?
4. What shows that we are truly sorry for not following God's Word?
5. Why do you suppose that the presence of human bones was a universally recognized desecration that would prevent worship in that site ever again?