

QUESTIONS

- 1. Why is Christianity not a religion in which we can measure our righteousness and compare it to others?
- 2. What is challenging about being willing to remain faithful and wait to see God reward His servants and punish the wicked?
- 3. How does this prophecy of Isaiah reinforce the idea that the blessings we receive are not dependent on us?
- 4. How can a premature death indicate the sinfulness of this world?
- 5. Why should we be hesitant to exclude people from the church of God based on our own standards?