

QUESTIONS

1. When have you ever been urged to worship or serve something other than God?
2. In Jeremiah's day, who was partly at fault for Israel's being scattered?
3. What important lesson did Jeremiah learn about his own life and the life of each human being?
4. Where do you see instances around you of wicked people seeming to prosper?
5. Why is it sometimes tempting to give up living God's way if you see no immediate results?