

QUESTIONS

1. Who are the unbelieving "prophets" (that is, people who falsely claim to have special insights into the truth) of our day?
2. How can we distinguish between someone who falsely speaks in the name of God and someone who is speaking the truth about God?
3. Why are false prophets such a dangerous attraction for the people of God?
4. What truths about God are implied in the rhetorical questions He asks in 23:23-24?
5. What sobering truths should we take into consideration before we claim to speak for God?