

QUESTIONS

1. Why is the advice of older people often sounder than the advice of younger people?
2. What older, more mature Christians do you have access to when you need advice?
3. How do we know that God's clear instructions are not meant to be corrected or amended?
4. Why is it easier to resist temptation that comes from an enemy than from a friend?
5. What is potentially good or bad about using deception to put someone to the test?