

QUESTIONS

1. What do you find significant about the author's list of observations from nature?
2. Which do you think presents the greater danger, having too much or having too little? Why?
3. How is the noble wife of this chapter different from or similar to the popular ideal today?
4. What can we do to encourage wives and mothers in their God-given responsibilities?