

QUESTIONS

- 1. For what different reasons do you think people fail to express gratitude to God?
- 2. Why do you think God's people sometimes fail to perceive His provision for them?
- 3. How would you explain our dependence on God for both mortal and eternal life?
- 4. In what respects is God in a totally different category from the images and things that people worship?
- 5. What do some of the illustrations in this passage reveal about the scope of God's power?