

QUESTIONS

1. Why is it unwise to claim to be "religious" if God does not reside in your heart?
2. How did God handle the dilemma of His people in need of punishment and His own name in need of vindication?
3. Why was God so unresponsive to Jeremiah's pleading on behalf of the people?
4. How is it fair or unfair that even God's faithful servants will experience suffering?
5. When can, or cannot, an appeal to the honor of God's name persuade Him to act?