

QUESTIONS

1. In what ways is idolatry portrayed in the parable of the woman?
2. What do you think is the greatest condemnation in the parable of the woman?
3. What will likely happen if we seek earthly recourse for the bad circumstances God has allowed to happen to us?
4. What excuse is eliminated if we know that God does not punish us for our parents' sins?
5. Why is God more concerned with the way we live today than with our previous mistakes or accomplishments?