

QUESTIONS

1. If the choice were yours, would you choose God's anger or that of a human enemy? Why?
2. Why don't more people choose life when they realize the spiritual choice before them?
3. How did Jeremiah's seemingly irrational actions concerning a piece of property serve to illustrate what God was revealing?
4. What should we do when obedience to God's clear directives seems confusing, illogical, or even contradictory?
5. What kinds of purchases would you be likely and unlikely to make if you knew the world would end tomorrow?