

QUESTIONS

1. Why was Jeremiah so unpopular with the officials of Jerusalem and the temple?
2. How was Jeremiah taking action on his own prophecy about the future when he was apprehended by his enemies?
3. When has obedience to God required you to make a decision you knew would be unpopular with others?
4. What contributes to a climate in which God-respecting people are harassed, mocked, ridiculed, or even harmed?
5. What are people acknowledging when they turn to God in times of confusion or trouble?