

QUESTIONS

1. What do you consider to be the worst change in your community during the past year?
2. If God were to lament publicly over our society, what do you think He would say?
3. How has suffering and humiliation moved you to action?
4. When have you felt the Lord's silence or anger against you?
5. In what ways have Christians today become complacent about sin?