

QUESTIONS

1. What message of hope can we offer to people who are in despair?
2. If the author of Lamentations wrote a letter to your congregation, what specific call to repentance would be given?
3. What role does godly discipline play in the life of your church?
4. What is easy or difficult about facing the consequences of our sin?
5. What previous sins committed by others in your family still affect you now?