

QUESTIONS

1. In what sense are Christians appointed "watchmen" for our world?
2. Why does God focus on the current condition of our heart rather than on the good or evil we have done in the past?
3. Who does God say is in control of each individual's choice of spiritual life or death?
4. What conflicting emotions do you imagine Ezekiel felt when the fall of Jerusalem, which he had predicted for so long, finally took place?
5. Why didn't God want His people to rely on Egypt as their salvation from the Babylonian threat?