

QUESTIONS

1. How are we tempted to glorify national symbols?
2. How do you distinguish God's authority from those in authority around you?
3. If you had a great deal of power over others, how might you be tempted to abuse it?
4. If God chose not to rescue you from intense personal suffering, how would this affect your faith?
5. In what area of your life is it most difficult for you to stand by your Christian beliefs?