

QUESTIONS

1. How can we follow the psalm writer's example when dealing with overwhelming problems in our lives?
2. What attitude should we have toward ourselves and the Lord in the middle of our problems?
3. How are our consciences dulled by our culture?
4. How should we respond to God's deliverance and help?
5. How can we mourn or experience grief in a way that reflects God's hand in our lives?