

QUESTIONS

1. When a leader in the church confronts us about sin in our life, how should we respond?
2. How have you benefited from the lessons learned by others' life experiences?
3. Why is confession of sin important?
4. In what ways do you feel implicated when sin is uncovered in the life of your church?
5. On what basis do you make requests of the Lord?