

QUESTIONS

1. If you were attending a public event at which you felt that your Christian values were being compromised, what would you do?
2. When have you chosen to submit to God's authority over you rather than obeying the laws of the land?
3. What qualities in Daniel do you most admire?
4. How do you feel toward God when innocent people are hurt or destroyed?
5. What steps can you take to trust God to resolve whatever difficult circumstances you face?