

QUESTIONS

1. What did Bildad imply about Job?
2. Under what circumstances would you conclude that God was punishing someone to whom bad things were happening?
3. What can you learn from an older person that you cannot learn from anyone else?
4. What kind of people forget God, and why do they forget Him?
5. In what way is it possible to be righteous or blameless before God?