

QUESTIONS

1. How would you summarize Job's approach to life, both before and after the onset of his troubles?
2. How did Job let his circumstances shape his perception of his life?
3. What significant events in your life have helped to shape your view of life and your view of God?
4. How is our self-esteem affected by our achievements or failures?
5. Why do you think Job found his personal suffering so confusing and unfair?