

QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think the exiles to whom Ezekiel spoke might have "eaten up" every detail of his description of the temple?
2. If someone could bring you a blueprint of heaven, what details would you want it to include?
3. Why was the return of the Lord's presence (described in Ezekiel 43) critical to the overall restoration of God's people?
4. How could the temple in its symmetry, beauty, and greatness cause the people to be ashamed of their sins?
5. How can the beauty and perfection of the heavenly worship, communicated to us in the Bible, be an encouragement to us in our present trials?
