

QUESTIONS

1. What does this story reveal about the strategies Satan uses to thwart good?
2. Why do you think God allows believers to experience failure?
3. What does this passage reveal about how Christians should view themselves and the work God has given them?
4. What should be our response to opposition from unbelievers?
5. What does this passage tell us about God's involvement in the lives of unbelievers and Christians alike?