

Discussion Questions

1. How should we follow the example of the leaders of Israel in this story?
2. In what ways do you think you should change your attitude toward reading the Bible?
3. How can we guard against apathy toward God's Word?
4. What should we do to restore our relationship with the Lord whenever we realize we have been acting selfishly?
5. How can it be helpful to write a declaration of commitment to God?