

Discussion Questions

1. What are some various "presents" we might give to Christ?
2. How does it feel to have a rival—to feel as though you are being overlooked or replaced and what is the best response to "rivals" or "opponents"?
3. What happens when people try to thwart God's plan?
4. How is your present location affecting your children?
5. Which would you choose: a high-paying job in a big city that required long hours, or a lower-paying job in a smaller town that enabled you to spend more time with your family? Why?