

QUESTIONS

1. What lessons can we learn from Noah's experience and the actions of his sons?
2. Why do you think the author gave an account of the family history of Noah's sons?
3. In what activities do people engage in order to make a name for themselves?
4. Why do you think God thought it was necessary to confuse the language of the world?
5. How does a person's place of origin impact the course of that person's life?